

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

SING SING.

The Rev. George W. Ferguson, rector of Trinity Episcopal Church, has returned home from his vacation trip.

Managers of the Oscina Hospital announce that the annual bazaar for the benefit of the institution will be held on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, November 1, 2 and 3, at Olive Opera House.

Much interest is manifested among the members of the convention of the Hudson River Central Baptist Association, which will be held here on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of next week. Among the prominent speakers will be Dr. J. C. Miller, Dr. J. A. Bowditch, of Yonkers; the Rev. A. E. Pease of Warwick; the Rev. J. M. Hutchinson of Newburg; the Rev. G. H. Ferris of Tarrytown; the Rev. F. M. Samner of Nyack; the Rev. L. Hinckley of New York City; the Rev. F. A. Hendrick of Middletown; the Rev. M. Negus of Brooklyn; and Mrs. William South of the Baptist Home.

Now begins the preparation of the interior of the Highland Avenue Methodist Episcopal Church is nearly finished, and the services will again be held in the church either the last Sunday in this month or the first of November.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ampler celebrated their anniversary of their new home in Hightown on Monday evening with a house-warming party that included a number of friends from this village and other places.

Captain John F. Jenkins, of Company C, the Regiment, accompanied by his wife and daughter, was present.

The Committee of One Hundred, which proposes to give the Westchester men of the 1st Regt. a reception in this village, made arrangements on October 1, had a meeting on Thursday evening at which the receipts were received from the several sub-committees. There are no less than three different receptions to members of the 1st Regt., as many different organizations in this village, and it is expected there will be considerable rivalry as to which entertainment will be the best managed, will have the largest attendance and secure the most prominent guests.

The Committee of One Hundred, which proposes to give the Westchester men of the 1st Regt. a reception in this village, made arrangements on October 1, had a meeting on Thursday evening at which the receipts were received from the several sub-committees. There are no less than three different receptions to members of the 1st Regt., as many different organizations in this village, and it is expected there will be considerable rivalry as to which entertainment will be the best managed, will have the largest attendance and secure the most prominent guests.

The Board of Five Directors has authorized the printing of four new fireboxes in the village.

Meeting of the subcommittees of the Jubilee Committee, Mayor's Office, City Hall, tomorrow.

Miss Mary Madeline Boeung and Dr. Frederick Diller Owsley were married on Thursday by the Rev. Dr. Thaxter M. Nixon, pastor of the Doubles Ferry Presbyterian Church.

Two sick soldiers from the 1st Regt. Regt., one in Company I, the other in Company H, reported from the hospital at Fort Wadsworth yesterday afternoon, where they will be cared for until fully restored to health.

BRIARCLIFF MANOR.

A people and clambake under the auspices of the Briarcliff Literary and Musical Society will be held in the orchard adjoining the Congregational Church next Wednesday afternoon from 5 to 8 o'clock.

The Rev. Dr. Charles H. Shobey, of Cleveland, Ohio, has been spending the last week with Mrs. Eliza F. Carr.

Richard F. Carr, of Chappaqua, addressed the young people of the Congregational Church on Tuesday evening in behalf of the Christian Endeavor Society.

Marshall Arnold, of Rhode Island, formerly of this place, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Charles Walcott.

Mr. George A. Todd, and his cousin, W. W. Garrison of Sing Sing, have returned from a pleasant visit with relatives in Pound Ridge.

KATONAH.

The Rev. Dr. S. L. Bowman and Mrs. Bowman, accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. James Hoyt, started on Thursday for the Berkshire Hills, where they will spend the next two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Gorham and Miss Helen Gorham, who have been spending the last week with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Gorham, in East Norwalk, Conn., will return to their home here to-morrow.

The Reded Farmers' Club will meet on Wednesday next at 2 o'clock in the Mount Kisco Opera House. The subject of discussion will be "Chasing Its Possibilities and Prospects," and will be introduced by Edwin Hoyt, of New-Canaan, Conn.

Mr. and Mrs. George Todd, who with their family are spending the season at their cottage in Chappaqua, are at their home in this place for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Wood entertained a number of friends on Thursday evening in honor of Mrs. Wood's birthday.

A gathering under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Katonah Presbyterian Church was held in the chapel on Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Henry Chadwayne, of Michigan, has been the guest of her brother, James C. Mayne, of this place, for the last week.

The eighth-eighth annual meeting of the Baptist Union of America was held in the Baptist Church at Bedford Centre on Wednesday and Thursday last. The Rev. H. B. Waring, who gave the annual address, was chosen moderator.

W. H. Gandy, of Mahwah Falls, On Thursday morning a prison service was held by the Rev. A. R. Bancock of Brewster. There was a large attendance at every session.

PORT CHESTER.

Services will be resumed to-morrow in nearly all of the churches, the pastors having returned from their vacations. The Rev. Irving White will preach at the morning service of the Presbyterian Church on "The Banded Arrows," and in the Congregational Church the morning offering will be in aid of the Red Cross.

The trustees of Port Chester at a conference on Thursday night practically decided to give the contract for paving Main-st. to Englehardt, the bid of $12,200 being the lowest of ten submitted. The material to be used is vitrified brick. The trustees are in a quandary about how to pay the street lighting special assessment, so many of them are in the mood to suppose that a new company was recently organized to supplement it, but the old company has underlined its rivals, and it is believed by some of the trustees that an injunction will be obtained if the contract is not given to the lowest bidder. Action on the question has been deferred.

A committee of the Board of Education in charge of repairs and improvements to the school buildings has met, and the 10 schools have all been renovated, and a number of important changes made. The Board has decided to reopen the schools next Monday.

YONKERS.

The funeral of Sidney Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Thompson, of No. 22 Mulberry-st. this city, was held yesterday afternoon at his home. Thompson was a private in Company B, 2nd Regt. and died from typhoid fever at Camp Black on Wednesday. He was in his twenty-second year and was a stenographer previous to enlisting. A detail from Company B served as pallbearers.

The funeral of Edgar Waterman Root, sergeant of Company A, 1st Regt., whose death occurred in this city on Thursday from typhoid fever, will be held this afternoon at his home, No. 357 Hawthorne-ave., at 4 o'clock. The burial will be at Buffalo on Sunday.

Clarence L. Winans, son of David A. Winans, a prominent member of John C. Fremont Post, G. A. R., died on Thursday at his father's home, No. 356 Buena Vista-ave. He was thirty-two years old. The funeral will take place this afternoon at 2 p.m.

The funeral of George W. Woolrich, who died on Thursday in his twenty-fifth year, will be held at the First Reformed Church on Friday afternoon.

Dr. Edward C. Kimball, president of the medical society of the Jenkins Medical Society on Thursday evening at his home, No. 10 North Broadway. The paper of the evening, "The Acid Poisoning," was read by Dr. George W. Kimball. Dr. Kimball, Dr. Henry M. Anderson, Dr. H. E. Kelly and J. H. Jackson, treasurer, Henry M. Anderson, The election takes place at the house of Hudson Hose Co. on September 25, at 8 p.m., being opened from 7 p.m. to 8 p.m. in the evening.

The new annual to Public School No. 4, in Ashburton-ave., is completed, and the contractors will be present to-day, to show the progress made.

The Holleywood Inn baseball team will meet the Vernon Athletic Club this afternoon at the Stevens Field, in the third of a series of games. The victorious team wins the championship.

Mr. Peter J. Elling and Miss Gross will receive the guests at the afternoon tea to be given to-day at the Amherst Club in the Palisade-ave. extension.

The Rev. James E. Freeman, rector of St. Andrew's Memorial Church, Larchmont, who has been the rector of the American Church at Port Chester since the summer, arrived home yesterday.

An offer of one hundred and sixty acres of land at Gray Oaks, two miles north of Yonkers, for camp purposes has been made to Vernon A. Alder, the land would be supplied with water by the Saw Mill River, which runs through it.

NORTH TARRYTOWN.

John Pierson has been committed to the Hudson River State Hospital in Poughkeepsie, having been adjudged insane by Drs. Todd and Freeland Pierson, who was employed on John D. Rockefeller's estate, assaulted George Hemmingway, the superintendent, because he believed that he had designs on him.

A special meeting of the voters of School District No. 1, town of Mount Pleasant, will be held on Thursday evening at 8 p.m. for the purpose of voting on the question of appropriating $100,000 for improvements to the schoolhouse.

John D. Lant, a private in the 2nd Regt., was seriously ill with typhoid fever at Camp Black.

The Rev. Dr. Beckman, Union Avenue Methodist Protestant Church, has unanimously requested the Rev. A. B. Purdy, the pastor, to remain the other, but has been denied.

Miss Elizabeth Sheehan and Thomas Garvey were married in St. Teresa's Church on Thursday evening by the Rev. George McNamee. Father O'Donnell, confessor, was present to conduct the service, and Richard O'Donnell, brother, was present. After the ceremony a reception was given to the relatives of the bride and groom.

The Rev. Dr. Chisholm, who had failed to renew the water rates at Mount Pleasant, on Monday evening, September 13, on question of whether or not the schoolhouse was to be taxed, was held over.

The trustees of School District No. 2, town of Mount Pleasant, acting as assessors, have completed the assessment roll for the current year, and the same has been filed with Isaac Beatty, the district clerk. The roll will be open for inspection until Wednesday, September 28, when the assessors will meet in the Sleepy Hollow Schoolhouse to do their work.

A special meeting of the voters of School District No. 2 has been called for Thursday, October 6, for the purpose of voting on the question of the proposed $100,000 for the construction of a new Sleepy Hollow School building. This makes the third attempt of the trustees to dispose of the old schoolhouse, the first having been stopped by Charles F. Skinner, of the State Board of Education, and the second defeated by the voters. The previous attempts aroused bitter indignation on the part of some of the taxpayers. The trustees, however, seem to be determined to sell the building and these premises to another existing one on Election Day.

TARRYTOWN.

A musical and literary entertainment will be given in the parlors of the Astbury Methodist Episcopal Church on Tuesday evening under the auspices of the Eucharist League Chapter.

The managers of the Tarrytown Lyceum have offered the use of their library to the unenlisted soldiers, who are now here.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ampler celebrated their anniversary of their new home in Hightown on Monday evening with a house-warming party that included a number of friends from this village and other places.

Captain John F. Jenkins, of Company C, the Regiment, accompanied by his wife and daughter, was present.

The Committee of One Hundred, which proposes to give the Westchester men of the 1st Regt. a reception in this village, made arrangements on October 1, had a meeting on Thursday evening at which the receipts were received from the several sub-committees.

There are no less than three different receptions to members of the 1st Regt., as many different organizations in this village, and it is expected there will be considerable rivalry as to which entertainment will be the best managed, will have the largest attendance and secure the most prominent guests.

The Board of Five Directors has authorized the printing of four new fireboxes in the village.

Captain Jacob B. Odell is rapidly recovering from a serious illness, and will soon be able to take charge of the steamer Albany, of the Hudson River Line.

Mrs. Marie Madeline Boeung and Dr. Frederick Diller Owsley were married on Thursday by the Rev. Dr. Thaxter M. Nixon, pastor of the Double Ferry Presbyterian Church.

MOUNT VERNON.

Private Joseph Glover, of Company L, 5th New York Volunteers, who died from fever in the Mount Vernon Hospital, was buried yesterday afternoon with military honors. The service was conducted at the home of his father, Ralph Glover, by the Rev. S. T. Graham, of Trinity Episcopal Church.

A detail of ten men from the 15th Regiment formed the escort, and many of Private Glover's comrades who are now on furlough marched behind the hearse. The body was taken to Woodlawn Cemetery, where a firing squad of the 5th Regt. gave a farewell volley, and a bugler sounded "Taps."

The members of Company M, 5th Regt., received home in straggling squads yesterday. Preparations to give them a welcome had been made by a delegation from the Women's War Relief Association, but the soldiers arrived on trains at midnight and daybreak, and the reception was postponed. The hospitals of both places have been opened free of charge to soldiers, and the 5th Regt. has been quartered in the Mount Vernon Hospital. Quartermaster-Sergeant James McCormay, Captain M. maternal lover, William Denison, Elizabethtown, N. J., and his wife, Mrs. Anna McCormay, Williambridge, James Hether, of Mount Vernon, and John Cameron and Andrew Yardsell, of Yonkers, who are too weak to march, are staying at the Cataract Inn.

Hornet, Chief of the Fire Department of Mount Vernon, and a friend visited the 5th Regt. on Tuesday evening in behalf of the Christian Endeavor Society.

Marshall Arnold, of Rhode Island, formerly of this place, is visiting at the home of Mrs. Charles Walcott.

Mr. George A. Todd, and his cousin, W. W. Garrison of Sing Sing, have returned from a pleasant visit with relatives in Pound Ridge.

NEW YORK CITY.

William Tarr, eighteen years old, of No. 20 West Twenty-ninth, fell through the airshaft in the building at No. 10 West Twenty-fourth-st., yesterday from the fourth floor to the cellar, suffering injuries from which he died an hour later in the New York Hospital.

Hornet, Chief of the Fire Department of Leipzig Germany, and a friend visited Fire Headquarters yesterday. Under the escort of Captain McLaughlin they inspected the working of the Department and also saw the fireboat Robert A. Van Wyck.

The Dock Board yesterday decided to repair the injury inflicted on the breakwater pier at the Hartt's Landing by the fireboat Van Wyck in the course of the naval demonstration on August 25. The damage was estimated at $6.

Vermilye & Co., who bid $66,603 for each $600 of the total issue, contend that they were the highest bidders for the bonds.

Meeting of the subcommittees of the Jubilee Committee, Mayor's Office, City Hall, tomorrow.

Coney Island Jockey Club races, Sheepshead Bay, 2:30 p.m.

Hall Calme, the novelist, to arrive on the campaign.

The 5th Regiment, New-York Volunteers, likely to reach this city from Camp Meade, Penn.

Congressional Club, with members, Spuyten Duyvil, N. Y., where 100 men are to be taken aboard.

Inquest in the De Witt case by Coroner Delap, Brooklyn.

Music on the Mall, in Central Park, after at Cedar, Claremont and Van Cortlandt parks.

WHAT IS GOING ON TO-DAY.

Troop A, of this city, and Troop C, of Brooklyn, expected to arrive from Porto Rico on the trans-port Mississippi.

Meeting of the subcommittees of the Jubilee Committee, Mayor's Office, City Hall, tomorrow.

Congressional Club, with members, Spuyten Duyvil, N. Y., where 100 men are to be taken aboard.

Music on the Mall, in Central Park, after at Cedar, Claremont and Van Cortlandt parks.

The 5th Regiment, New-York Volunteers, likely to reach this city from Camp Meade, Penn.

Congressional Club, with members, Spuyten Duyvil, N. Y., where 100 men are to be taken aboard.

Music on the Mall, in Central Park, after at Cedar, Claremont and Van Cortlandt parks.

The 5th Regiment, New-York Volunteers, likely to reach this city from Camp Meade, Penn.

Congressional Club, with members, Spuyten Duyvil, N. Y., where 100 men are to be taken aboard.

Music on the Mall, in Central Park, after at Cedar, Claremont and Van Cortlandt parks.

The 5th Regiment, New-York Volunteers, likely to reach this city from Camp Meade, Penn.

Congressional Club, with members, Spuyten Duyvil, N. Y., where 100 men are to be taken aboard.

Music on the Mall, in Central Park, after at Cedar, Claremont and Van Cortlandt parks.

The 5th Regiment, New-York Volunteers, likely to reach this city from Camp Meade, Penn.

Congressional Club, with members, Spuyten Duyvil, N. Y., where 100 men are to be taken aboard.

Music on the Mall, in Central Park, after at Cedar, Claremont and Van Cortlandt parks.

The 5th Regiment, New-York Volunteers, likely to reach this city from Camp Meade, Penn.

Congressional Club, with members, Spuyten Duyvil, N. Y., where 100 men are to be taken aboard.

Music on the Mall, in Central Park, after at Cedar, Claremont and Van Cortlandt parks.

The 5th Regiment, New-York Volunteers, likely to reach this city from Camp Meade, Penn.

Congressional Club, with members, Spuyten Duyvil, N. Y., where 100 men are to be taken aboard.

Music on the